- BUILDING ADDITIONS to campus brought everyone closer together and provided more opportunities for campus community activities.
- WE WANT THE FUNK. Major Madness was a huge success, especially the concert at the North End with George Clinton and Parliament Funkadelic.
- THE KAVA HOUSE became a favorite spot for dining, socializing and studying after its completion second semester. Special events such as Greek Jeopardy and the Chess Tournament were held there.

Working out in the HAC is great. Where else can you see cute girls working out on campus? For myself though, I enjoy the challenge and the sense of accomplishment that I get from working out and maintaining my physique.

HOMECOMING COURT. Senior maids Sarah Fontenelle, Brandi Walker, Linday Whitfield, Lindsay Akers, and Amy Brazda were elected by the student body prior to the Homecoming game.

SPECTATING. Charles Barnewold watches as the Majors take the field

SOUVENIRS. In support of the Majors, students and alumni purchase T-shirts from Shelly Breland.

RALLYING THE CROWD. Beth Doshier and Shelly Byrd lead fans in a rousing cheer.

SOCIALIZING. Amy White visits with her family at the Tri Delta brunch Saturday morning

GAME TIME. Football players and cheerleaders storm the field to the roar of a spirited crowd.

Friends come together for a weekend filled with festivities and football!

I HAVE BEEN a huge supporter of the Millsaps Athletic Department for the three years I have been at Millsaps. Our athletes work very hard and don't get half the credit they deserve. Football is one of my favorite sports, and it was great to see the Majors come back with a couple of touchdowns after having a not-so-good first half. -Lane Douglass

CARNIVAL* WAS THE first full scale musical put on by the Players in nearly 10 years. Homecoming turned into an entire weekend themed around Carnival, including popcorn and cotton candy in the bowl, a man on stilts, clowns, and two Burmese pythons. The most nerve racking part of the weekend was keeping one of the pythons on my shoulders! -Melinda Bott

Reunion

HAKE IT UP. During the halftime how, the Major Impressions dazzle e crowd with their new moves and iforms.

CLOWNING AROUND. In the Bowl on Saturday, Travis Clay amuses everyone by making balloon animals.

POST-GAME PARTY. Sun Volt captivates the students with their edgy music.

PRE-GAME. Will Wikle tailgates with the Tri Deltas before the game begins.

SPORTS FAN. Susan Mareno soaks up the sun as she watches the Majors play Rhodes.

Moving-in is one day of chaos compared to a lifetime of friends.

MOVE-IN DAY is hectic, but it's a lot of fun being able to meet the freshmen. Being an RA has been a great experience. I've really enjoyed helping the people out on campus. -Chad Washington

MOVING IN AND the first few days at Millsaps were pretty hectic. Mainly I was just relieved that my roommate, Ann, did not turn out to be nearly as scary as she sounded during our first phone conversation. We ended up having so much fun this school year. -Kim Jones

Settling

HOME COOKING. Because of rain, Jennifer Honican and Molly Johnsey had to fix burgers in Bacot's lobby at the dorm cookout.

UM, UM GOOD. Derrick McNeal serves Adam Causey at the Meet the President reception.

Y2K READY. Barrett Ingram makes his Galloway room more like home by setting up his PC.

PHONE HOME. Jason Stine spends a little of his spare time talking to his mom.

READY, SET, GO. Julian Dodd, Katie Hardy, and Amy Loy anticipate the hoola-hoop coming their way during the Freshmen Olympics.

RA DUTIES. Chris Randall informs Drew Ford about the terms of the Galloway housing contract.

FOLDING INTO A NEW LIFE. Amy Thames makes her bed for the first time in Bacot W37.

With bands, games and food, Major Madness kicks off spring at Millsaps!

AT THE MAJOR Madness Talent Show, I walked out in my bare feet and played Imagine by the master songwriter John Lennon, one of my favorite artists. -Robert Caskey

I NEVER THOUGHT college students could have so much fun with blow up toys. You get to act like a kid again! The best part is when a professor starts playing, and you get to shoot them for that bad grade "they" gave you on that paper. -David Chambers

Funky

DINING AL FRESCO. Chris Randall is served lunch outside in the Bowl.

MAJOR QUAKE. Will Steelman concentrates at his computer during the Quake Tournament.

TASTEY CRITTERS. Derriaux Gadlin savors the flavor of cajun crawfish under the shade of a tree.

ALL I WANT FOR CHRISTMAS. Andrew Clark loads a bike that will surprise a child whose name was on the Angel Tree.

COTTON TALES. Bunny Shoestring was a campus wide activity that brought children to campus for an afternoon of fun.

TRICK OR TREAT. Meg O'Beirne and Ashley Huff pass out Halloween candy to the children of faculty and staff.

DEVOTION. Erica Adkins takes communion at the Maundy Thursday Service.

Whatever the season, Millsaps always found a reason to celebrate.

THE BETA BETA BETA holiday featured the notorious faculty band "Science Rocks." Connie Campbell, Dick Highfill, and I played parodies of popular holiday songs. We had quite a blast playing such favorites as "Grandma Got Run Over By a Reindeer" and "Christmas at Millsaps."
-Dr. Mick Veum

THE KD/KA EASTER Egg Hunt was a really great time. We hid about 200 eggs for all of the Millsaps faculty and staff. The highlight of the day was when Wade White dressed up as the Easter Bunny and played with the little kids.
-Adam Lambert

Jubilee

ERVICE WITH A SMILE. he faculty and staff, including ndrea Pound and Anita umrall, served a late night reakfast during exams.

SILENT NIGHT. Jeff Mitchell lights Katie Clegg's candle as the choir processes out into the Recital Hall to sing Silent Night at the close of the Advent Service.

LEAPING LIZARDS. Greer Proctor receives a lizard as a gift at the RA Christmas Party.

CHRISTMAS CLASSICS. At Santa Shoestring, Daniel Redmond, Aimee Boudreaux, and Brady Raanes acted out How the Grinch Stole Christmas.

GIVE THANKS. Vicki Myers and Caroline Ranck were in the Chapel Choir which performed at the Thanksgiving service.

The campus calendar is filled with events offering students ample ways to become involved.

PETANQUÉ IS A game played throughout Europe, similar in some ways to horseshoes in the U.S. While I won the Petanqué contest at the Francofété Celebration, some high school kid gets the prize...quelle justice! -Kevin Richardson

FOR EARTH DAY we tried to set up booths that would show people how to be environmentally friendly. One of these booths was the Vegetarian/Organic food booth. At first some people were a little hesitant to try this bizarre health food, but almost everone eventually found something that they really liked. -Katie Hardy

RELAXING.

Georgia Williamson, Brinda Rao, and Mandi Coody converse as they enjoy the spring sunshine in the Bowl. After lunch or on a nice afternoon, students congregated in the Bowl to study and relax.

STUDIOUS. Andrea Gilbert reads quietly outside in the hallway of Bacot.

MEETING PLACE. Billy Dubuisson and Starlight Ray take a break from a hectic day.

BON APPETITE. Tora Clay learns to prepare Mediterranean chicken risotto during David Woodward's cooking class in the Kava House.

FINE ARTS. Jane Buck communes with posters at the annual fall poster sale.

PET THERAPY. Drew Hutchinson pets a puppy outside of Murrah Hall.

Finding the perfect blend of learning and laughing was all in a day's work.

I LOVE READING in the Bowl because it's a beautiful place to get some studying done, while at the same time enjoying the scenery. I was reading Snow Falling on Cedars for my IDS class. It's a good book about a courtroom trial, and since my next stop after Millsaps is law school, I guess that's why I was so interested in the novel.
-Byron Cooper

THE LITTLE TRADITIONS of Millsaps football like the playing of the fight song after touchdowns, the SAE's with painted faces, and the Major coming to say "Hi" are great bonuses to going to football games.

CAMPUS CONTACTS

Viewpoint

"Recording is an interesting experience. We got to see how the CD was produced. It feels good to be a recording artist."

Walter Zinn

Rising Stars

Under the guidance of director Terrance Alexander, the Millsaps Gospel Choir accomplished several feats this year. The choir was selected to perform on the Eddie Miles Tri-State Syndicated Gospel Television Show and sang in churches across the state. They also signed a contract to record with Jubilee Records.

Lucky Winner. Ms. Denise Gonsalves of dining services won a 19" television in a raffle sponsored by BSA.

Strong Leaders

Serving as officers of the SBA were Sam King as President, Kate Pearce as 1st Vice President, Vaughan Jinks as Secretary, Chad Washington as Treasurer, and Laura Ferry as 2nd Vice President.

Serving the Campus

"I feel honored to serve as president during such an exciting time in Millsaps' history. The level of student enthusiasm is high due to the changes taking place, from the new facilities and renewal of old rivalries to changes in administration."

WORSHIP SERVICE

Catholic Inspiration

Catholic Campus Ministry held weekly mass on campus. The CCM played regularly with the children at Our House, an area shelter for runaway and abused teens. They sang to the residents of the Alzheimer's unit of St. Catherine's Village. They also provided a mission opportunity to Saltillo, Mexico. "Our mission trip to Mexico was truly the most humbling experience ever. Many of the people of Saltillo have so very little, according to our standards. But what they lack in material possessions, they more than compensate for in their deep spirituality and their rich zest for life. And that is something for which we all left Mexico revering them and perhaps even envying them a little bit," said Molly Jeffcoat.

Campus Worship

The Campus Ministry Team sponsored the Midtown Project and monthly sevices in the Fitzhugh Chapel. At right, Carolina Whitefield-Smith assists Jonathan Kilgore, director of the Chapel Choir, as he plays during the Thanksgiving Service.

Viewpoint

OUTSIDE INTERESTS

Habitat Helps

Habitat for Humanity's membership grew as did the organization's enthusiasm in giving back to the Jackson community. "We had a successful year participating in the building of three houses. I look forward to Habitat for Humanity's continued fundraising, building homes, and educating the community through our service efforts," said Brian Berthiaume, president of Habitat.

Campus Link

Sarah Fontenelle, Andrea Klevan, and Meg O'Beirne helped coordinate the Campus Link program which tutored at French Elementary and the Bethlehem Center. These three received the Lewis and Reiff Award for their service and leadership.

Relaxing

Jeremy Motts and Talisha Moore, at right, participate at Passages, Poetry, and Pastries. This meeting focused on Tai Chi as a spiritual experience. Passages, Poetry, and Pastries was an opportunity for students, faculty, and staff to gather and share their common interests in the literary arts.

Being Counted. Allison Harris and Julie Strickland fulfill their civic duties by completing their census questionnaires.

All Rise. Sarah Davis and Mackey Sugar stand for recognition in receiving an award at ODK Awards Day.

GLOBAL CULTURE

La Tertulia

Students met weekly in the cafeteria for Spanish conversation led by Shelley Harrigill, president of the Spanish Club. To add a little flavor to the conversation, monthly dinners were held at various restaurants around town where students conversed with native Spanish speakers from the Jackson area.

French Heritage

The French Club assisted Mrs. Gail Buzhardt in making visuals and posters for a presentation on the "French Heritage in the South." Mrs. Buzhardt's lecture was sponsored by the French Club and the Alliance Francaise. It was presented March 16 on campus.

Kaffestunde

Each week, Dr. Joan Cotter prepared German cuisine and coffee for anybody who wanted to join the conversation group. Dr. Cotter's only condition was that no English could be spoken. In November, the German Club celebrated the ten year anniversary of the fall of the Berlin Wall.

- DR. FRANCES LUCAS-TAUCHER was named the 10th president of Millsaps. She previously served as the Vice President of Student Affairs at Emory University.
- DEAN DAVID SNEED left Millsaps after nine years as the Dean of Students. He affected many students' lives and will be greatly missed among the Millsaps community.
- Y2K CREATED MANY fears among students, faculty and staff; however, everyone returned from Christmas break to find Western civilization in perfect working order.

The community values every member and recognizes that through our differences, we have unique contributions and gifts to offer. The atmosphere of Millsaps is one that challenges students to achieve our full potential and provides genuine concern for us as individuals.

Q: President Harmon, what were your most significant achievements?

A: I cannot speak in terms of "I." With the help of faculty, staff, and the Board of Trustees, Millsaps has been recognized nationally as a premiere liberal arts college. It has improved its student body academically, geographically, and culturally.

Q: How do you feel about your accomplishments?

A: Accomplishment comes through others, my job is to get good people and let them do their jobs.

Q: Why did you decide to retire?

A: I feel like it is time to leave. Millsaps is concluding its third major fund raising campaign. It's time for new energy.

In Memory of Lillian-Elizabeth Stickle
1979 - 1999

"She was always herself... loved to play the devil's advocate... highly intelligent... very encouraging of everyone's potential... knew how to have a good time... nobody intimidated her. Ellé commanded attention, which makes her absence all the more difficult."

- THE ATHLETIC STAFF welcomed a host of new faces. Janet Johnson joined Millsaps as director of the Hall Athletic Center. Cara Rasmussen assumed the position of Sports Information Director.
- VARSITY TEAMS also experienced new additions to their coaching staffs. Bob Tyler and Ronnie Grey joined together to lead the football team. Missa Turman was named new cheerleading sponsor. Women's soccer gained Diane Rulewicz as its new coach.
- STUDENT ATHLETES made the grade. Three varsity athletes received national recognition. The athletic grade point average was higher than the overall average of all students.

Being part of the women's varsity soccer team has been one of the highlights of my life at Millsaps. Road trips, 6:30 a.m. practices, and learning how to "clean" in weightlifting have provided opportunities to experience new things and form long-lasting friendships.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

Thanks to: Dean David Sneed, Sandy Rhymes, Betty Hulsey, Patrick Cooper, Andrea Pound and the rest of the Student Affairs staff for their cooperation and support; the Business Office for handling yearbook orders and billing; Steve Douglas of Graduate Supply House for his encouragement; Gwenyth Winston and Jennifer Hoover of Herff Jones for in-plant help; the Post Office staff for assisting with yearbook distribution; the Maintenance staff for moving us to our new room; Cara Rasmussen and Missa Turman for help with sports information; teachers and students for donating pictures for the book; Brian Berryhill for his help with photography.

CROPPING IS FUN! Laura Lane crops the pictures for her section, while Rachel Baird helps he choose the best quality pictures.

COMPUTER CRASHED AGAIN?! Brooks Brower, Lindsey May and Beth West work to finish the Student Life section of the yearbook

IT was kind of upsetting that we had to have graduation at Thalia Mara because of the tradition of having it in the Bowl, but at least there was air conditioning.

Progress

- AFTER 22 YEARS OF BUILDING up the college financially, academically, and aesthetically, Dr. George Harmon announced his retirement. A nationwide search resulted in Dr. Frances Lucas-Taucher being chosen as the 10th president starting in July of 2000.
- THE YEAR WAS MARKED by significant change. From double-wides and styrofoam plates to the new Hall Athletics Center and the Waterwall, the college community witnessed a progression that will lead Millsaps into the new millenium.
